

Raucous Term Report

Raucous Chorus termly report,
From September to today.
So much we've done, I wonder what
I should use and what to say.

Jenny, our awesome conductor,
Has spent the term on fire;
Inspiring us, gently guiding us,
So to greater things we aspire.

We welcome guests and visitors;
New members sign up most weeks.
No one has to audition
And we all ignore any squeaks!

New songs are sometimes a challenge,
Especially if harmony's involved.
Jenny takes charge, and "What do you know?"
Our worries are soon dissolved.

The song count is now one hundred,
Halleluiah is the song.
No twiddles - yet - for the girls (game or not).
No doubt they'll soon be along.

Dear Men, like a sandwich filling
Between two slices of bread.
We're so much more than separate parts.
Altogether we sound delicious instead.

Without music, words are only words,
A song the whole world can sing,
We, Raucous Chorus, for the gift of song,
Thank Jenny for everything!!
